

FAITH MISTAKES IN PALESTINIAN CUSTOMS AND SAYING

Abstract: The present study is aimed to remind and warn the Palestinian people on the type of faith mistakes that are commonly prevailed among them. This is because many people frequently used these customs and sayings without any restrictions. These mistakes are not simple as they are concerned with tawheed, worship and god wellness. Detection of these mistakes is a religious duty that corrects people understanding and behavior toward such bad mistakes and customs. Consequently, the current research will contribute to avoid faith mistakes toward good behavior.