

Abstract: The research deals with the beginning of life on, and its limited in the start at life on earth to lost day.

The research discusses the conditions and the end of the land all that by the ability wepons.

The research mentioned the reasons and factors of reform and benefit of this reform.

The research describe the benefits of land, this land may chang by punishment for unbelievers, by Allah, the vallege of mannenger loot was, turn off or by damage the land or by earthquake to shoapernation.

The research deals with the conditions and the end of the land, in which the research talks about the punishment of nations by reversal and rift.

The researcher also talks about the refor of life till the day of judgment, then the researcher deals with the description and the shape of earth on the day of judgment, thee researcher finally ends by talking about the inheritance of Allah to the world after extinction.

The researcher end his with some scientific recommendations.